

Policy, advocacy and impact editorial associate

3ie, New Delhi

1. Background

The International Initiative for Impact Evaluation \(3ie\) promotes evidence-informed equitable, inclusive and sustainable development. We support the generation and effective use of high-quality evidence to inform decision-making and improve the lives of people living in poverty in low- and middle-income countries. We provide guidance and support to produce, synthesise and quality assure evidence of what works, for whom, how, why and at what cost. 3ie is registered as a non-governmental organisation in the United States. It has offices in New Delhi, London and Washington, DC.

The Policy, Advocacy and Communication Office (PACO) has the primary responsibility for developing, managing, monitoring and learning from the engagement and evidence uptake and use requirements in 3ie impact evaluation and systematic review grant-making. PACO has been improving its approach for capturing lessons from managing and monitoring stakeholder engagement and evidence uptake from over 150 impact evaluations and 35 systematic reviews.

PACO has an effective monitoring and learning system, building on a significant amount of information and data in various forms, including interviews with research teams, stakeholders and notes from field visits. The office is also responsible for developing effective approaches to research communication, advocating for evidence-informed policymaking and programming and promoting commitment to evaluation. The team anchors 3ie's internal and external communication, including the production of knowledge and communication products.

3ie is looking for a policy, advocacy and impact editorial associate to work in New Delhi, India. The associate will report to the head of PACO.

2. Key responsibilities

The associate will be responsible for a variety of tasks outlined below and will provide project and information management support to ensure the timely, high-quality production of evidence and advocacy documents and other products, as well as support the project work supervised by the director.

2.1 Main areas of work

- Maintain, manage and improve systems to ensure on-time, high-quality editorial production of all types of 3ie editorial products;
- Maintain the PAC information management system for grants management responsibilities and project tasks;
- Collect, format and finalise team information needed for internal and external, including donor reporting;

New Delhi

202–203, Rectangle One, D-4, Saket District Centre, New Delhi – 110017, India

3ie@3ieimpact.org Tel: +91 11 4989 4444

- Organise and manage MIS tools to improve team management and work on deliverables, including business development;
- Keep all publication-related templates, standard information and guidance documents up to date and improve as needed;
- Work with the publication design and formatting staff to provide guidance on content as needed;
- Select high-quality, compelling, ethical and legal photos for all products; and
- Provide administrative support to the director on scheduling, travel, filing, research support and other administrative duties as assigned.

2.2 Editorial production system management (30-50%)

- Maintain and improve the PACO editorial management information system for organising, scheduling and producing all of 3ie's evidence and knowledge products;
- Coordinate with offices and staff to determine the annual, quarterly and weekly production pipeline and disseminate the tracking reports;
- Manage the editorial production budget, reconcile quarterly and contribute to budget exercises as needed;
- Maintain the 3ie freelance editor and proofer rosters;
- Schedule freelance editing and service proofing according to agreed timetables;
- Ensure editors and proofers have adequate commissioning briefs and adhere to standard procedures for completing the work and billing 3ie;
- Select appropriate, high-quality, legally sourced photos as needed;
- Provide guidance on content to the publication design and formatting staff when needed;
- Copy-edit database summaries and product descriptions, liaising with report leaders;
- Manage contracting and billing; and
- Maintain existing PACO information on the 3ie MIS.

2.3 Project management (30-40%)

- Provide project management support for all PACO-led projects and business development;
- Provide simple information and literature searching and reporting that supports PACO work;
- Contribute to and finalise donor reporting by tracking and verifying assigned donor indicators; and
- Provide other project management support as assigned.

2.4 Other tasks (10%)

- Provide other PACO administrative support as assigned;
- Contribute to PACO M&E and reporting and annual donor reviews as required; and
- Contribute to ensuring that 3ie communication is unbiased and gender sensitive.

3. Qualifications and skills

3.1 Education and work experience

- Minimum is a Master's degree in a field relevant to international development. Certification in development project management (e.g. PMD-Pro) is desirable;
- A minimum of three or more years of relevant communication and project management responsibilities requiring the use of recognised project management tools, such as logframes, Gantt charts and budgets;

- Experience working with Excel® for data management related to project management and tracking deadlines and deliverables is required and Access experience is desirable;
- Demonstrated knowledge of the international development sector, major actors and how the sector works through education and work experience; and
- Work with an international development agency or development NGO in India; foreign developing country experience preferred.

3.2 Skills

- Exceptional English-language writing and editing skills;
- Exceptional project management experience, such as proposal generation, work breakdown plans, budgets, reporting, risk registers. Working knowledge of Asana, MS Project or other work planning online tools is desirable;
- Advanced knowledge of all MS Office 2010 or 2013 applications, with particular experience in advanced use of Excel® for project management;
- Proven ability to multi-task, support multiple team members working to different deadlines;
- Proven ability to work independently and work in a fast-paced, deadline-oriented team;
- Must be able to work well in a fast-paced, multi-actor, multiple deadline environment with a minimum of supervision;
- Must like to take the initiative and problem solve;
- Must be a team player who is committed to working together for institutional, as well as individual, goals; and
- Ability to work well in a multi-cultural work environment spread over three offices on three continents.

4. Eligibility

The successful candidate must be a resident of India and have the right to work in the country. 3ie is an equal-opportunity employer committed to equality and diversity. We do not discriminate based on sex, age, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation or being differently abled. We particularly encourage women, ethnic minorities and differently abled persons to apply.

5. Terms of employment

Candidates should be available to start work at the earliest. 3ie offers competitive remuneration based on experience and qualifications.

6. How to apply

Please apply by e-mail to (jobs@3ieimpact.org) mentioning 'Application: Policy, advocacy and impact editorial associate' in the subject line.

The application package must include the following:

- A cover letter, not exceeding one page, highlighting your experience relevant to the terms of reference. A summary on your CV is not a substitute.
- Curriculum vitae (not to exceed two pages);
- Name and contact information for two references; and

- One writing sample to demonstrate your experience in the field.

Applications will be accepted through 2 July 2018 at 09:00 IST. Incomplete submissions will not be considered. We will only contact shortlisted candidates.