

Bursary support

MEASURE Evaluation and GEMNet Health have partnered with the International Initiative for Impact Evaluation (3ie) to offer a limited number of bursaries for qualified Asian candidates, with preference given to those working in 3ie member organizations in Asia.

To be eligible for a 3ie bursary, you must:

- Be a national of and residing in an Asian country;
- Be progressively engaged in conducting impact evaluation, systematic reviews and evidence synthesis; and
- Be employed by a local agency, such as regional NGOs, government agencies and so on, not a multilateral agency or an international organization that has capacity to provide funding for its employees.

The 3ie bursary covers the following:

- Round-trip, economy class airfare from the participant's home city;
- Accommodation for the duration of the workshop, as specified by 3ie; and
- Full cost of workshop fee.

The 3ie bursary support does not cover costs associated with ground transportation such as airport transfers, visa fee or meals other than those provided by the accommodation as part of the room rate. No per diem or daily allowance is will be provided.

How to apply for a 3ie bursary (for members)?

3ie members who wish to take part in the workshop should complete the application forms and other supporting documents and mail it to sluhach@3ieimpact.org

To download the application form, click here. Applications close August 10, 2018. Bursaries will be awarded on a competitive basis.

What is the selection process for a 3ie bursary?

The bursary programme office at 3ie will select a limited number of candidates based on the following criteria:

- How well has the applicant demonstrated their interest in and commitment to the field of impact evaluations, systematic reviews and evidence synthesis?
- How well has the applicant demonstrated that attending the workshop will enhance and support their individual and institutional capacity building?
- How would the applicant share their experience and knowledge with others in their organisation or community?
