

Types of member engagement with 3ie	Types of membership
	Evidence Champion	Global Evidence Champion
1. Advising and contributing to 3ie governance
Participate and vote at annual member conferences	✓	✓
Eligible to serve on 3ie committees or working groups		✓
Eligible for 3ie's Board of Commissioners		✓
2. Championing and promoting evidence
Advocate for and/or provide support to at least one impact evaluation, systematic review or evidence gap map each year	✓
Demonstrate the uptake and use of evidence	✓	✓
Provide funding annually for at least two of either impact evaluations, systematic reviews or evidence gap maps		✓
Provide funding for other institutions to generate and use impact evaluation, systematic review or evidence gap map evidence		✓
3. Contributing to the 3ie membership network
Support 3ie's fundraising in your country	Low- and middle-income government agencies and NGOs
Support 3ie's fundraising regionally or globally		Low- and middle-income government agencies and NGOs
Provide funding to 3ie for projects or member fees of at least $10,000 annually	High-income country NGOs and L&MIC donors
Provide funding to 3ie for projects or member fees of at least $20,000 annually		High-income country NGOs and L&MIC donors
Provide funding to 3ie for projects or member fees of at least $50,000 annually	High-income country donors
Provide funding to 3ie for projects or member fees of at least $100,000 annually		High-income country donors
4. Member benefits
Tailored new member's onboarding, including a collaborative advocacy plan	✓	✓
Access to the 3ie community of practice (e.g. webinars)	✓	✓
4.1. Low- and middle-income country members only
Eligible for member bursaries	✓	✓
Peer learning events	✓	✓
New business support	✓	✓
b. L&MIC Government members only
Paid travel for one representative to 3ie's annual members' conference	✓	✓
Members from fragile and conflict-affected countries can receive up to five days of pro bono 3ie services	✓	✓